

"Growing in Christ"

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
Northeastern Iowa Synod

Why is the Bible so hard to read?

How do you interpret scripture and apply it for today?

How does my faith grow by reading the Bible?

These are some of the questions offered by members of the Northeastern Iowa Synod at the June 2010 Synod Assembly.

Making Sense of Scripture

Presented by Dr. David Lose,
Luther Seminary

Sunday, September 12
6:30 – 8:00 p.m.
McCaskey Lyceum
Wartburg College, Waverly

A presentation by David Lose will be followed by refreshments and informal table conversation at the Chapel Commons. Life-long learning resources will be available for viewing, including Book of Faith resources such as David Lose's book, Making Sense of Scripture.

This event is open to both lay and rostered participants. There is no registration fee. Free will donations will be accepted.

David Lose is the Marbury E. Anderson Chair in Biblical Preaching, Luther Seminary. His book Making Sense of Scripture helps everyday Christians read the Bible with greater understanding and enjoyment. More than a standard biblical reference book, Making Sense of Scripture is a dialogue that encourages readers to bring their questions or doubts to the table when reading Scripture. During this conversation, there are different opportunities for the reader to interact with the Bible, ultimately leaving room for personal transformation of the heart and mind.

A popular speaker, Lose has lectured and led workshops throughout the country and internationally. Dr. Lose will also speak to rostered synod leaders on Monday, September 13. See an upcoming event registration form for further details.
