

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
Northeastern Iowa Synod

Course Registration 2009–2010

Salem Lutheran
Lake Mills, Iowa

Life-Long Learning for Lutherans offers classes at various sites located throughout the synod. The courses are produced by SELECT, a video based continuing theological education program designed for small groups. Courses are taught by professors from various ELCA seminaries and facilitated by rostered leaders of the Northeastern Iowa Synod. Registrations are requested by two weeks prior to the start of a course to determine if there are sufficient numbers to hold the class.

Fall Term 2009

Salem Lutheran, Lake Mills

How Lutherans Interpret the Bible & Dramatic Presentation of the New Testament

Mark Allen Powell

Professor of New Testament, Trinity Seminary, Columbus, OH

David Rhoads

Professor of New Testament, Lutheran School of Theology, Chicago, IL

In this new edition of this course, Powell outlines how Lutherans interpret the Bible. Topics include: The Word of God, What Lutherans Say About the Bible, Where the Bible Comes From, Interpreting the Bible in Context, Determining Right From Wrong, The Many Meanings of the Bible, and Devotional Bible Reading. Rhoads engages in a dramatic representation of various portions of the New Testament that will give a new appreciation for these writings.
