

News from the Northeastern Iowa Synodical Women's Organization

Statement of Purpose

As a community of women created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

Scholarships Available

Look for the first SWO Convention mailing to every congregation. You will find information about the SWO Scholarships that are available to women in the Northeastern Iowa Synod.

SWO Convention Scholarships - $20 - offered to women who are members of the Northeastern Iowa Synod, are not the congregational unit delegate and are attending the Convention for the first time.

Educational Scholarships of up to $500 are offered to women of congregations of the Northeastern Iowa Synod who need to further their education to re-enter the work force. This is NOT for those who have just graduated from high school.

Scholarship applications are due May 1.

From Your President

Women of the ELCA celebrate Bold Women's Day each year on the fourth Sunday in February. This year that day falls on February 27th. Our mission is "Mobilizing women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ". The Churchwide Women of the ELCA website has a number of ideas about observing this day. Women of our congregations can be honored for the many ways that they serve. Each of us are different and so our "BOLD" looks different. Live your "BOLD" in your community, church and family.

ACT BOLDLY ON YOUR FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST!

*8th Triennial Gathering
July 14 - 17
Spokane, Washington*

All Women of the ELCA are encouraged to participate in the 8th Triennial Gathering by creating! Two options are available for all women, whether or not you attend the gathering in Spokane.

Quilters of all abilities are invited to create a quilt interpreting the gathering theme, Renew, Respond, Rejoice! Complete instructions for the quilt challenge are at www.womenoftheelca.org/triennialgathering or call 800-638-3522. Quilts must be received at churchwide office by May 1.

Another option for women is to make prayer shawls. These will be collected at the gathering and given to ministries in the host synod, the Eastern Washington-Idaho Synod. Instructions for making the prayer shawls are available at www.womenoftheelca.org/triennialgathering or call 800-638-3522.

If you cannot attend the gathering in person you may mail your shawls to the Eastern Washington-Idaho Synod Office for arrival between June 1 and July 1, 2011. Mail to:

TG11 Prayer Shawls

Cluster Spring Events are being planned. Look for publicity, put it on your calendar and plan to attend. Each cluster event is unique. Bring someone along to enjoy a program, fellowship and opportunity to learn! If you are asked to be a cluster officer, give it serious consideration. Gathering with other women in our area is a real blessing.

The 2010 – 2011 Bible study is “The People of God: Unity in the Midst of Diversity,” looks at what unites us and defines us as people of faith. Often, the tendency is to stay focused on the issues that divide us, but the goal of this study is to focus on our common faith in Jesus Christ. This study written by the Rev. Linda Johnson and The Rev. D. Jensen Seyenkulo, Ph.D. helps us understand how our different backgrounds, life experiences, and perspectives can be shared and heard as we study the Bible together.
